Terms and Conditions of the Application

Funding

It is understood that funding granted to applicants will be forwarded to the veterinary clinic (in which the dog is to be treated) and not to the owner.

K9 Lifeline aims to assist as many applicants as possible with the funding that is available. Due to budgetary constraints, we cannot guarantee that an applicant's financial request will be met. The amount of funding provided will be at the sole discretion of K9 Lifeline.

K9 Lifeline reserves the right to readjust the amount of funding provided to the applicant in the event of discrepancies between the quote received from the veterinary clinic and the final cost of the treatment or surgery.

K9 Lifeline will not be held responsible for any additional fees/costs incurred by the client after the signing of the Agreement for Financial Assistance (to be signed if application is approved).

K9 Lifeline will provide funding of up to:

- $200 for treatments and surgeries costing up to $400;
- $325 for treatments and surgeries costing up to $700; and
- $400 for treatments and surgeries costing up to and exceeding $1000.

Health Changes of Dog(s)

K9 Lifeline is not responsible for the loss of life, changes in health, or changes in condition or behavior of the dog named on the application as a result of treatments or surgeries.

Transportation

K9 Lifeline will not be responsible for the transportation of any dogs.

Contact with Veterinarian

K9 Lifeline reserves the right to contact the applicant's veterinarian to gather further, and to verify, information regarding the application.

Rejection of Application

K9 Lifeline reserves the right to reject any application, solely at the discretion of K9 Lifeline.
